

Par Club of Florida, Inc.

Par Club of Florida, Inc. is a Florida corporation in which more than 75 residents own common stock. It holds rights of first purchase on most perperties in the Village. It also holds the common stock of RHS, having stepped in to preserve it several years ago when RHS's survival was in doubt.

Since its inception, the Par Club's philosophy has been to support efforts to develop and enhance the community in ways that enhance the life and environment for the membership of The Country Club of Florida and residents of the Village of Golf. Par Club strives to improve the quality of life for all of those involved in the community.
